ABOUT US

■ About Baki Hanma

Baki Hanma is the 3rd series of the action comic series "BAKI (work by Keisuke Itagaki)," whose total number of accumulated publications exceeds more than 85 million. The story is based on the original story of "Baki Hanma" (comic), which is about the youngest world champion of the underground combat Grand Prix, Baki Hanma, challenges Yujiro Hanma, who is known as the strongest living. This turns out to be the fatal battle between a father and his son. In 2021, the 1st anime series was distributed, and the second season has already been in production.

■ About METADRIP

METADRIP is a smartphone app that allows users to try on /experience digital assets, including 3DCG-generated NFTs, in AR (Augmented Reality) through the camera. In the future, there will be a special function added. This function allows the holder of the assets to try on and experience the AR feature of the specific items which has been minted as an NFT. The number of these assets will also be updated constantly. METADRIP incubates mass-adoption among society, creators, and brands. It will be achieved with making the most of AR technologies, and infusing the new layer of practicality to digital assets.
